- I would like to have the password for the code of MrMotif;
- If I publish a paper that uses the MrMotif code I will make every effort to make the data I test on available;
- If I publish a paper that uses the MrMotif code I will make every effort to make the code I test on available under these conditions.

Why we need you to request the password?

- We would like to track how many people are using our code;
- We want to encourage reproducible research (by encouraging others to share their code and datasets).
